

WCPO TV, CINCINNATI, OHIO
Addressing the Community's Problems and Needs Report
2nd Quarter
April 1 – June 30, 2012

Program Title: A New Day

Source: Recorded

Time/Day: 11:00-11:30 a.m.

Frequency: 1st Sunday/Monthly

Type: Public Affairs

Program Description

A New Day is a public affairs show that provides information, resources and tools to strengthen communities, families and individuals. Produced in a comfortable, relaxed setting, each show features a community calendar and interview segments that address current key issues in the local community.

Vitality of Non-Profits

May 6, 2012 – Discussed the need for volunteers to be advocates for children in foster care.

Individuals and Families in Need

June 3, 2012 – The Northern Kentucky Community Action Commission offers programs and services to families in need.

Education

June 3, 2012 – The Ohio Riverway educates young people on nature, boating and fishing.

--

--